

Executive Director Position Description

Agency: West Virginia Commission for National and Community Service (dba Volunteer West Virginia)

Reports To: Governor-appointed, bipartisan Commission

FLSA Status: Exempt

Civil Service Status: This agency is not part of the Classified Service. All positions are will and pleasure positions and also dependent on federal, state and grant funding.

Salary: Dependent on experience; full benefit package.

Summary: The West Virginia Commission for National and Community Service (dba Volunteer West Virginia) is the state's volunteer agency. This small staff of approximately 8-11 individuals administer approximately $6 million in federal and state funding annually and operate a wide variety of partnership development, community development, and volunteer programs. Supported by the Department of Arts, Culture and History, the agency implements a three-year state service plan which sets priorities for the agency. We administer the AmeriCorps national service programs; support non-profits by providing capacity building training; promote and develop disaster volunteer response networks; and, develop civically engaged leaders in West Virginia communities.

The Executive Director of the agency is hired by a Governor-appointed, bipartisan group of volunteer state service Commissioners. Commissioners have responsibility for hiring and oversight of the Executive Director, who oversees the work of the agency and staff.

JOB SUMMARY: The Executive Director provides leadership for the organization in accordance with the policies and objectives established by the Board of Commissioners to promote the overall vision, direction, health and growth of the organization and of national service and volunteerism in West Virginia. We are a small state agency and this position manages day-to-day financial, operational and administrative functions of Volunteer West Virginia, as well as providing critical vision, leadership, direction and accountability for meeting state service goals and compliant, ethical use of state and federal resources.

The successful candidate will be a self-motivated, hands-on, organized professional with a positive, can-do attitude. She/he must enjoy the challenges and rigors of a growing and evolving service-oriented organization, be comfortable operating in a complex environment, and enjoy working with a variety of organizations, including small grassroots community organizations and organizations that operate nation-wide. Flexibility, focus and commitment to the goals of Volunteer West Virginia will be critical.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED: Supported by a Governor-appointed Board of Commissioners and provided administrative support via the Curator of the Department of Arts, Culture and History.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED: All agency staff (8-11 employees)

ABOUT VOLUNTEER WEST VIRGINIA:

Volunteer West Virginia's mission is to strengthen communities through service and volunteerism. We provide training, recognition, and act as a central site for volunteers and volunteer programs to help them strengthen their communities. Designated as the State Service Commission for West Virginia in 1994, Volunteer West Virginia has 25 years of experience leading our state's service efforts.

The agency has a history as a convener of national service partners, community development, and volunteer management agencies. The agency has a legacy of funded programs providing direct, critical support where it is most needed including 25 years of support for programs like Energy Express, AmeriCorps and the Governor's Volunteer Service Awards.

Volunteer West Virginia works with the State of West Virginia to support state and voluntary disaster response and recovery efforts, and assist with volunteers before and after a disaster, support the state's Community Emergency Response teams, and operates the state's individual and community preparedness education program, ReadyWV. Committees operated by Volunteer West Virginia include the Governor's Service Award Review Panel; WV's Promise, the Alliance for Youth; the West Virginia Early Childhood Advisory Council; and, an independent non-profit agency managed by a separate board of directors.

Our AmeriCorps portfolio is worth more than four million dollars in federal funds and includes a wide variety of programs, ranging from 5 AmeriCorps members to more than 500 summer AmeriCorps members. The agency also operates the state's largest AmeriCorps VISTA project, WV's Promise, the Alliance for Youth, which engages 26 VISTAs year-round and approximately 100 Summer Associate VISTA members.

At Volunteer West Virginia, we are committed to being an exemplary employer, where our employees are our greatest asset. We promote a healthy and collaborative work environment with opportunities for growth. Volunteer West Virginia is guided by the following values:

- We believe in the power of people to make their communities better.
- We believe voluntary service is a powerful tool for community change.
- We believe that by working together we get more done and the solutions are better.
- We believe in giving taxpayers their money's worth.
- We believe in taking care of ourselves and each other.
